

Safeguarding

Easy Read Version

Magpies

Introduction

Keeping people safe is called Safeguarding.

Magpies is committed to keeping you safe and will support you if you are concerned about your safety or the safety of somebody else.

You have the right to live free from harm and neglect

This booklet will tell you who to contact, and what will happen when you speak to us.

When you speak to us

We will give you the time and support you need to tell us what has happened

You will be listened to

Your privacy will be respected

We will treat you with respect

You can have someone to support you

We will help you to understand what is happening

Sometimes we might have to share information for your safety

Who to speak to

You can speak to your key worker or any member of Magpies staff

The safeguarding concerns manager is Kelly Beck

If Kelly is not available, then go to Amanda Goulding

You can call the office on 01422 383550

If you would like to read the full policy and procedure, please contact the office.
